RULES OF THE RAID

As a Raid participant I will accept and abide by the following rules:

- To carry all legal documentation (i.e. driver's license, insurance) and abide by all state and federal regulations.
- To make sure my vehicle is road worthy for such an extended trip, and be responsible for carrying the appropriate spare parts for my vehicle.
- I understand that if I deviate from the Raid route the organizers are not responsible for my retrieval in case of breakdown. Furthermore, the participant understands that the Raid schedule cannot be held up due to any major mechanical problems, as those difficulties are ultimately the responsibility of the participant.
- I am responsible for all my own personal expenses (i.e. food, fuel, etc.). Campground costs are covered in the entry fee. Lodging other than campgrounds are the participants responsibility.
- I understand that if my Raid vehicle is larger than a normal sedan using a tent, I will incur a slightly higher camping cost, to be determined later. In addition, if I decide to use a motel for a night or two, rather than camping, I will do so at my own cost, and furthermore does not entitle me to any reimbursement of "unused" camping fees.

The Raid organizers shall not be held responsible for any personal property of the participant. It is specifically understood and agreed that the organizers of the Raid are expressly released and discharged from any and all liabilities, loss, injury or damage to either persons or property that may be sustained in connection with Raid Northern Trail or related activities.

I understand and agree to the above conditions:
